He was in consultation today with Representatives Emerick, of Illinois, and Livingston, of Georgia.

The Mayor of Dubuque, Iowa, has finally discovered a young lady who is willing to act as sponsor for the warship that is to bear the city's name. In a telegram to Secretary Morton today, the Mayor says that Miss Margaret Treadway, daughter of the president of the Dubuque Club, will assist at the christening which is to take place at Morris Heights, N. Y., on the 27th inst. A few days ago the secretary was astounded to learn from Dubuque's Mayor that not a young woman in the city cared to make the journey to christen the ship. Most of the young society folk were away from the city, the Mayor explained, and what few remained were not eligible for the honor. It is understood that the publication of this letter brought down upon the Mayor's head a terrific storm. The Dubuque Club led the onslaught upon the Mayor for his "break" and it is presumed that he appointed Miss Treadway as a peace offering to the organization he had so grievously offended.

Fraud orders were issued by the Post-office Department this morning against the Pacific Guarantee and Investment Company, of San Francisco, which guaranteed $1.50 return for each dollar invested; and the National Specialty Company, of New York. At this morning's session of the International Brotherhood of Stationers a resolution was adopted endorsing the action of the packing house firemen in entering into a sympathetic strike with the meatcutters and handlers at Chicago, Omaha, Sioux City and St. Louis. Embrey and Constable Edward Bradley visited Cabin John Bridge and not only closed down the amusements found operating there, but placed under arrest seven men—Ninian M. Perry, Louis Harbert, Robert Garrett, Joseph Fowler, James Donohue, Roy Yowell and Thomas Perry. They were given hearings before Justice of the Peace Loughborough at Rockville yesterday afternoon. The cases against the two Perrys, Garrett and Donohue were dismissed, but the others were each fined $5 and costs. An appeal was noted in each case.

Refused to Indict.
The grand jury of Rappahannock county on Monday refused to bring in an indictment against Dr. T. L. Borton, of that county, who, on July 4, shot and killed William Jordan on the main street of Flint Hill. The testimony of witnesses was to the effect that it was a clear case of self-defense and to this was added a strong sentiment in Borton's favor.

The tragedy was the outgrowth of an old grudge between Borton and Jordan. Borton had the management of the farm of Mrs. Millan, of that county, who was a sister of Jordan. In this capacity Borton incurred the displeasure of Jordan, who, on the day of the affray, demanded that Borton relinquish his management. This Borton refused to do until so ordered by Mrs. Millan, and so informed Jordan.

This so enraged Jordan that he made the attack on Borton which ended in his death. After being shot by Borton, Jordan knocked the former down.

Sat in White Woman's Lap.
Elizabeth Hall, colored, 22 years of age, was fined $5 and costs yesterday by Justice Carr, in Baltimore, on the charge of assaulting Miss Susie Stiffler, 309 Bond street, by sitting in her lap while on a Westport car early yesterday morning. According to Miss Stiffler's story she was returning from Westport with some friends and the colored woman boarded the car in South Baltimore and on account of the crowded condition of the car stood in front of Miss Stiffler.

Tiring of standing, Miss Stiffler said that the woman finally sat down in her lap. Patrolman Strohm was called to quell the excitement which followed, and he arrested the woman. At the hearing the accused claimed that Miss Stiffler struck her with a long hat pin and in trying to move she fell in Miss Stiffler's lap. In view of the testimony to the effect that the woman had used considerable profane language, Justice Carr imposed the above fine.

Telegraph Printing Machine.
A test of the Rowland multiplex telegraph printing machine will be made this week between New York and Boston for the Postal Telegraph Company.

The Rowland machine is now in use between Rome and Naples, and if successful in the coming test may be used soon in this country. By the Rowland machine as many as eight messages can be sent simultaneously in both directions over the same wire. Only six messages will be sent each way in the coming test. The messages are sent by an operator who writes them on a typewriter attached to the machine, and they are printed at the receiving end upon a tape similar to that used by the stock brokers. By use of other systems only one message can pass over a wire at the same time. The machine also means the necessity of fewer operators, and this will mean a saving of expense.

Butchered and Outraged.
The board of visitors of the Confederate Soldiers' Home, at Richmond, on Monday night removed A. C. Peacy as commandant of the home and made W. W. Caldwell acting commandant. The removal was on account of an attack made by the commandant on Dr. W. A. Deas, surgeon of the institution and county coroner, which action the board deemed improper in one holding the position as commandant of the home.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The New York Stock Market.
New York, Aug. 10, 11 a. m.—The stock market continued strong. The weather conditions in the spring wheat regions were somewhat improved, and the wheat market lacked its recently sensational features. These factors encouraged local buying and made it more difficult for the short interest to recover its stock. The principal selling in the general railroad list was scattering. The undertone of speculation was firm.

Many of the large canning factories in Westmoreland and Northumberland counties along the Potomac have commenced operations for the summer.

Mr. Henry S. Kemp died on Sunday at his home in Norfolk of typhoid fever, aged 39 years. Mr. Kemp was well known in this city, where about a year ago he married Miss Ray Field.

During a severe electrical storm yesterday afternoon more than 200 telephones in Suffolk were burned out and telegraph service injured. Thunderstorms have visited that section almost daily for several weeks and much injury has been done to crops.

The Herndon Colt Show and Racing Association has been organized at Herndon by the election of S. A. Hersherper, president; C. J. Wiehle, secretary; James Cockerill, treasurer; Dr. H. B. Hutchinson, G. A. Bannister and W. L. Palmer, the executive committee.

A well known woman of Stafford county was attacked a few days ago in her yard by a polecat. In her desperate struggle with the "varmint" she put her foot on the animal's neck and held it until another woman secured an axe and cut its head off. Both ladies fainted after dispatching the wild animal.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, patent attorneys, of Washington, report the grant this week to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Ben J. Campbell, of Danville, for a fluid viscosity motor; G. A monument is to be erected on the courthouse lawn, in Leesburg, in honor of the Confederate dead. The cost will be $3,000, and the design and work will be executed by Herbert Barbee, sculptor. The Clinton Hatcher Camp, C. V., and the local chapters of the Sons of Veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy have the matter in charge.

Details of the trouble in Camp Nalle, at Ocean View, between Capt. George W. Fitchett, of the Newport News Light Infantry, and Captain Salomonsky, of Norfolk, were received yesterday at Newport News. The casual belli seems to have been an order from Salomonsky for the arrest of a member of Fitchett's company. It is stated that a court-martial will assemble tomorrow to try the case, the Norfolk officer having preferred charges against Fitchett. An old grudge growing out of differences arising during the participation of the two companies in the Richmond carnival four years ago is said to be at the bottom of the row. The affairs have received orders not to discuss the matter.

Jewels Not Lost.
It became known yesterday that Mrs. Ogden Goelt was the owner of the $175,000 worth of jewels that were supposed to have been stolen. Mrs. Goelt was not robbed of the jewels after all, it also turns out, according to a story of the police related at Newport, R. I., by Chief of Police Richards. She merely forgot where she had put them, and repeatedly declined to search her New York residence as requested by the detectives whom she had employed. Time and again she stated that she had her gems with her in Newport, and not until Monday, when moved by the newspaper exposure of the alleged robbery, would she consent to inspect her New York home. Then she found her pearls, rubies and diamonds just where the best detectives in the country who had been called in on the case believed she would find them.

Railroad Sold.
George T. Carter, the millionaire mine promoter, according to a special from Norton, Wise county, has purchased the Virginia and Kentucky railroad, running from Norton to Wise, and has also bought the Tom's Creek mining operation, 12 miles east of Norton. It is thought that it is the object of Mr. Carter and his associates, Eastern capitalists, who own the Virginia and Southwestern railroad, running from Bristol to Big Stone Gap, to extend that road to Tom's Creek and thus obviate the necessity of shipping coal over the Norfolk and Western whose rates have not been satisfactory. Mr. Carter's object in buying the Virginia and Kentucky railroad is yet a mystery, unless he expects to extend the line into the undeveloped coalfields of Dickinson county.

Removed the Commandant.
The board of visitors of the Confederate Soldiers' Home, at Richmond, on Monday night removed A. C. Peacy as commandant of the home and made W. W. Caldwell acting commandant. The removal was on account of an attack made by the commandant on Dr. W. A. Deas, surgeon of the institution and county coroner, which action the board deemed improper in one holding the position as commandant of the home.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Scenes at Esopus.
Esopus, N. Y., Aug. 10.—The worst rain storm marked the advent of the notification morning. The streets of the village were deluged before daylight, and from the top of the hills upon which stands Rosemount villa, water poured downward in torrents, and in all directions. At 11 o'clock the rain still fell steadily, thwarting the success of the function.

Judge Parker was keenly disappointed at the outlook when he arose at 6 o'clock this morning, and walked gingerly down the muddy slope from Rosemount to the waterside where he takes his bath. He had hoped having a day of sunshine and was more disappointed because there was every prospect of fair weather when he went to bed last night. The few guests he had invited to witness the ceremony expressed deep regret, whereupon the nominee turned consoler and laughingly assured his friends that the gods chasten those they love. The judge entertained only five relatives and close friends over night, and it was said this morning that no others were expected today. His guests are his mother, his sister, Mrs. James Miles, of Derby, Conn.; Mr. Miles, German Consul Reiloff, of St. Louis, whose acquaintance with the family dates only from Mr. Hall's visit to the national convention, and Mrs. Daniel Manning, of Albany.

Immediately after breakfast the entire party gathered upon the veranda and discussed the weather. The judgesaid he hoped that the rain might disappear before 2 o'clock, the hour set for the beginning of the ceremony. He stated that if the rain holds to that time, the function will be held on board the steamboat Sagamore, which left New York shortly before 8 o'clock this morning with the members of the notification committee, and many guests aboard, and is expected to tie up to the Rosemount dock at 1:30 p. m.

The Sagamore will easily accommodate 600 persons, and room for the notification services could be found upon her main deck. Judge Parker spent almost the entire morning committing to memory his speech of acceptance, which will be delivered immediately after Champ Clark, chairman of the committee concludes his address of notification.

David B. Hill's secretary, P. J. Marweller, arrived at Rosemount at 10 o'clock with a huge bag of flowers for the nominee. Mr. Hill's floral tribute and one from a neighbor, Mrs. George F. Neidlinger, were the only ones received.

Shortly before noon, President Charles F. Gunther, of the Irons Club, of Chicago, with three members, reached Esopus in response to an invitation from Judge Parker.

M. E. Delaney, of the State democratic headquarters at Albany, is also a guest for the day.

David B. Hill left Albany at 10:30 this morning to attend the notification and will arrive about noon. A telegram was received from Chicago this morning to the effect that Mayor Carter Harrison had discovered that he could not come on today, with the Illinois delegation, and sent regards instead.

The police arrangements at Rosemount were of the simplest sort and were in charge of Deputy Sheriff Grove Webster. Four other deputies, sworn in for the occasion, and Chief Humphrey, of the New York Central Detective Bureau, complete the force. Lines have been drawn about the piazza and about that portion of the lawn north of the house, where the ceremonies will be held if the weather permits. The deputies will be posted along the lines only when the notification committee is at hand. Admission inside the ropes is by ticket only, but ordinary spectators are given an excellent opportunity to see the celebrities and hear the speeches from almost any portion of the lawn.

At 11:45 a. m. it was still raining though the cloud banks were lighter and a slight northwest wind was springing up.

Though the rain stopped falling at 12:30 p. m. and there seemed every prospect of the clouds giving away to clear skies, Judge Parker announced that the notification would take place upon the Sagamore. The steamer Sagamore, with Champ Clark and the members of the notification committee on board, arrived here at 1:15 p. m.

As the committee left the boat they formed in line by two, walked up the slope to the villa, where Judge Parker met them and shook hands with each. Yielding to the importunities of his friends, Judge Parker overruled his first decision and the notification will be held on the grounds.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, and National Chairman Taggart walked up the hill with Committee-man Campan, of Michigan, and Senator Bailey, of Texas. They were among the first to greet the nominee. After the handshaking the committee repaired to the lawn, Judge Parker informing each that he had finally decided to hold the notification upon the lawn. There were 1,000 persons on the grounds when the judge's employees began the decoration of the stand under the trees upon which the speckmaking took place.

David B. Hill arrived at 1:30 p. m. and was an interested spectator of the proceedings. Judge Parker's family was escorted from the house to the seats of honor that had been arranged for them by a committee. The same committee accompanied the nominee, who leaned upon the arm of Chairman Champ Clark, of the notification committee.

When Judge Parker reached the stand there was considerable cheering. Cord Meyer introduced Champ Clark, chairman of the committee of notification, who began his speech. During Mr. Clark's speech, Judge Parker stood at his side and frequently clapped his hands at telling points in the address. While Mr. Clark was yet speaking, it began to rain. Judge Parker refused an umbrella and got a wetting before the Missourian finished.

A great outburst of applause greeted the conclusion of Chairman Clark's speech, and the presentation of the credentials, but was faint in comparison with the cheers that went up as Judge Parker stepped to the center of the platform and began his address of acceptance. Judge Parker was applauded at nearly every period in his address.

[The text of Judge Parker's speech will be found on the third page of the Gazette.]

When Judge Parker finished his address there was a great outburst of applause and the waving of flags. The nominee's declaration not to accept a renomination was almost frantically cheered.

The War in the East.

London, Aug. 10.—A correspondent with General Kuroki's force sends the following dispatch, which reads as follows: "Heavy firing on our right confirms the reports that a large Russian force is attacking there. Russian prisoners state that their army is sometimes short of rations for two days at a time. The season of rain has been followed by a fortnight of severe heat. The Japanese loss up to August 10th was 990 killed and wounded." This statement of losses evidently refers to Kuroki's army alone.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 10.—General Kurapatkin reports several minor clashes between the Russian and Japanese outposts. Cossacks have discovered that the Japanese have field and infantry reserves.

Paris, Aug. 10.—A telegram received by the Foreign Office states that General Kurapatkin will not abandon Liao Yang, but intends to give battle there within three or four days.

Seoul, Korea, Aug. 10.—Yesterday morning two companies of Russians entered Gensang, but retired on finding that the Japanese were there in superior force.

Fight in the Georgia House.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 10.—As the result of the order of the Speaker of House, Morris, to have all members locked in during the vote on the bill to raise the pay of Supreme Court judges and prevent them from accepting passes, a bloody fight ensued yesterday between Representatives Franklin, of Washington, and Doorkeeper Albert Maples, in which Representative Maples, of Mitchell, father of the doorkeeper, soon appeared as the star performer. The doorkeeper, who is a small man, was being bested by Franklin, when his gray-bearded father sprang to his son's assistance, and was systematically battering Franklin's face when the two were pulled apart. In the meantime, the younger Maples had drawn a knife, and was attempting to reach the man whom his father was entertaining. He was prevented in his attempt as practically the whole house rushed to stop the fight. Although it was only a battle of fists, enough of Franklin's blood was drawn to stain the floor and furniture in the corner where the fight took place.

Meat Handlers' Strike.
Chicago, Aug. 10.—Steps looking to a settlement of the stock yards strike are to be taken at a conference between the retail meat dealers' association of Chicago and the market wagon drivers' union according to reports that reached the packing house teamsters today. Extension of the picket lines about wholesale and retail meat markets was promised for today by union officials managing the stock yards strike. An early conference of the leaders was held and plans were made to shut off ice and meat from more establishments patronizing the big packers. Despite all efforts of commission men, today's receipts of live stock were so heavy as to astonish the packers. There were 23,000 cattle, 15,000 hogs and 15,000 sheep.

Destructive Fire.
Victoria, B. C., Aug. 10.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of Victoria occurred late yesterday evening. The loss is estimated at $150,000 and about fifty families were rendered homeless. The fire department was on the scene in quick time, but owing to the strong wind the blaze gained very rapid headway. A remarkable feature of the conflagration was the manner in which the flames jumped from one place to another aided by the wind and licked up everything immediately in their path. The fire had burned itself out in four hours. Two firemen were injured, one of them seriously. There were no other casualties.

Death of Former Premier.
Paris, Aug. 10.—Former Premier Waldeck-Rousseau, is dead. The former premier had been ill for some time past. Early in May he was operated on for liver trouble. From the time he was 33 years of age, until his death, he was more or less intimately connected with the politics of his native land. His greatest service, however, was given during his holding of the office of premier for three years, from June, 1899, till June, 1902. The former premier was born at Nantes, on December 2nd, 1846.

Stirling scenes are predicted in the near future.
